

Geoff Carter and David Stoyle have joined documentation house Digitext as documentation consultants. Carter was formerly at ICL and Stoyle was with DEC's publishing services group.

Trevor Lafferty has joined Amdahl as director of customer services, and Chris Waite has recently been appointed national systems engineer.

Protek, the Hewlett Packard specialist, has recruited Johnnie Di Duca (below) as assistant to the financial controller. He joins the company from Binder Hamlyn where he was training as a chartered accountant and will be continuing his accountancy training at Protek as a certified accountant.

Professor Abdullah Hashim (below) has been appointed professor of information technology at Magee College, University of Ulster. A former researcher and lecturer at Imperial College, Loughborough University and Leicester Polytechnic, Hashim works in the fields of signal processing, robotics, pattern recognition and computer network research.

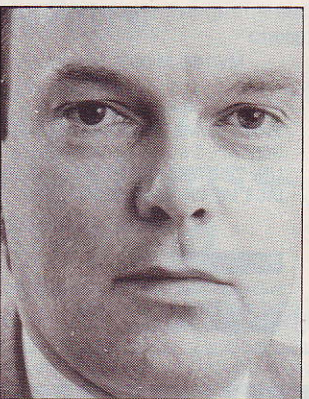

software support manager. He will be responsible for all MAI software support, the management of the company's software support team, and customer training.

Bedfordshire electronics company Hulcote Electronics has appointed Richard Stanley as director of operations.

Westward Technology, pc-based cad workstation supplier and graphics display manufacturer, has appointed Bob Brown (above) as its new general manager. He will be responsible for sales, support and new developments.

BBN Communications, the private packet-switching network firm, has appointed Geoffrey Beale (below) as network consultant for BBN's European operations. Based in London, Beale joins a team responsible for network design and analysis, capacity planning, and full technical support.

PLC Consultancy Services has appointed Yvo Henniker-Heaton as senior consultant. Henniker-Heaton was previously the senior computer risk consultant with insurance brokers Hogg Robinson Gardner Mountain.

Cheltonian International, supplier of Oracle-based project management software for DEC VAX and Unix computers, has appointed Cliff Sutton as international business Andrew Browning (above) has been appointed managing director of Microgen, the bureau service company. He takes over the position from Ian Martin.

Seagate Technology has announced the appointment of Alan Robbins (below) as director of finance, European operations. He will be responsible for all financial matters for the European operation, which includes regional sales offices in Munich, Paris and Marlow, a distribution centre in Amsterdam, and a centre in East Kilbride. Seagate Microelectronics in Livingston, Scotland will be another area of responsibility.

Intouch Tutorials, the Australian computer-based training specialist has appointed Lorraine French (below) as UK general manager. French joins from Frontliner Distribution where she was responsible for setting up the successful Apple Products division.

The business services division of Computer Management Group has London. CMG City of London has appointed Dave Gretton associate director with responsibility for major companies in insurance.

Paul Tennyson (below) has been appointed a consultant with Price Waterhouse, management consultancy services in Birmingham. He will be responsible for advising companies on the Marlborough a Wales-based mana consultancy has an the appointment of Bacon as senior cor and director design Dowty Informat Systems, the suppl modems and multi has announced the appointment of Alan Walker as managin for its Newbury-ba communications company.

Market analysis Caci, has announce senior appointment

Richard Irwin Associates Ltd

Preparing

Training Serv

*Introduction to Structured Analysis
Basic Systems Analysis Workshop*

For More Information Contact Chris

WOODWAY
TRAINING ASSO

● 13-14 February Software Inventory Management

Covering the concepts and practices necessary to complete a software development project. It does this independently. The most popular methods is discussed. The spectrum from standard to advanced

● 15-17 February Computer Capacity Management

The course relates to the very large mainframe computer systems. The most diverse of communications networks is covered.

Places on these courses will be strictly limited.

For Woodway's Information Pack please telephone Kathryn Jessop: 0602 461313

Woodway Training Associates Ltd
Curzon House, 288 Curzon Street,
Long Eaton, Nottingham. NG10 4FL